

Robbed Fr

up to.

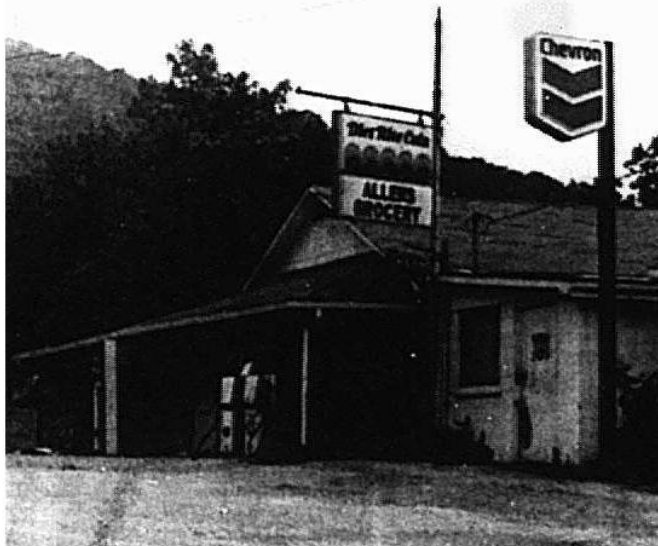

tnesses at the store identified male who had ordered the na, and with that identifica- the Estill County Sheriff's rtment and the Irvine Police rtment began to search for the male was arrested about 2 Saturday morning in Irvine by trooper Mike Miller. ce the state had no jail in which to house anymore juvenile prisoners, the male was held in the custody of the jailer until his hearing Monday afternoon.

The male is a juvenile and only persons directly involved were allowed to listen to the hearing which was held in private at the courthouse Monday.

He was reportedly warded to the Department of Human Resources to find a home for him. This was len's Grocery, located just outside Irvine on the Winchester p juvenile who was arrested but released because there wer

Election Tue

DELORES PATRICK TILL COUNTY TRIBUNE

As voters go to the polls esday, several Estill County ice races will already be decided cause the winners of the primary l be running unopposed in the lection.

Those offices include the operty Valuation Administrator, untly Clerk, County Attorney, d Constable from all three istricts.

Republicans Tamara P. Dunaway d Hannah W. Marcum are ing off for the Property Valua- n Administrator's job. Dunaway a former holder of that office ile Marcum is the present 'A.

Former county attorney Earl F. hercraft, present county attorney ristopher S. Combs and Mikereland are vying for the office of untly Attorney. All three are ining on the Republican ticket. In the County Clerk's race ument Dora N. Henry is being challenged by Kenny W. Cole and Floyd Newton Jr. All three are members of the Republican party.

Body Unidentified

No identification of the skeletal remains found last Friday has been made at this time, according to the Estill County Sheriff's Department.

The remains of a young, white female were found about one half mile off Broadway on Friday, May 10.

This remains are believed to be those of a young teenager who has been missing for about three months.

The case is being investigated by the Estill County Sheriff's Department and the Kentucky State Police.